

Al Dennis

Al Dennis entered TCC in the fall of 1970 with an eye on a future in law enforcement. He earned an associate degree and went on to Florida State University, earning a bachelor's degree in criminology. After a brief stint with the Tallahassee Police Department, Al started his 31-year career with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, where he went on to serve as Drug Abuse Resistance Education statewide coordinator, special agent supervisor and administrator of public information. He was FDLE's inspector general from 2004 until retiring in 2014.

Al served on the former TCC alumni association board of directors for many years, where he helped raise awareness and funding on behalf of the College. He was also selected by President Jim Murdaugh to serve as a committee member for the inaugural TCC Annual Law Enforcement Black History Month Celebration and Recognition Program Breakfast.

According to Al Dennis, he is "a better person and law enforcement professional for having attended TCC." We are certainly happy to call him one of our own.
