

Firearms Instructor Update Course Region XV

June 4-5th, 2024 ♦ Hours Vary
Florida Public Safety Institute
75 College Dr, Havana, FL 32333

Course Description:

This course (FDLE #1201) is an update for active CJSTC Firearms Instructors. This course will teach the instructor-student the new additions and changes added to the basic recruit firearms curriculum effective July 1, 2023. Students must complete the course with iron sights and a handheld flashlight. If the student's weapon possesses a red-dot sight, the sight must be able to be turned off during the course. Additionally, undermounted weapon lights may remain on the weapon but may not be used during the class. Students will provide and use an agency approved handheld flashlight for the practical portions of the course.

Ammo will be provided for students.

Prerequisites: Instructor students must possess an active Firearms Instructor Certification. They should possess sufficient experience to meet the standard core of knowledge, pursuant to the requirements outlined in this course.

Course Objectives:

Understand the firearms curriculum

Demonstrate proficiency with the requirements of the firearms curriculum and update
