Applications Directions:

I. Submit One (minimum 300 word count) Thank You Letter:

- Nothing is appreciated more than a kind letter of thanks! Many scholarships available at TCC are made possible by contributions from generous donors who, through an investment in your future, have expressed their belief in the importance of education. A letter of sincere gratitude to our donors may be the key to future gifts to the campus and, therefore, continued support of exceptional students like you.

“Thank You” Letter Content (Outlined Information)

- You should tell the donor(s) a little bit about yourself, including:
  - Your hometown

Kyle Everett Broach & Courtney Segler Scholarship Application (Continued)

- Family background
    - Experiences and life situations that led you to pursue your High School Diploma
  - You should also include some information about your current situation, such as:
    - What you are involved in both on- and off-campus
  - Describe how the scholarship support will help you meet, or exceed, your educational goals
  - Finally, you may want to talk about your future plans, like:
    - What you hope to accomplish while still a TCC student
    - What your plans are after graduation, college pursuit or career aspirations
