Course Description:
In this course, the student will learn the processes and techniques that apply specifically to investigating sexual crimes committed against children. These techniques will range from the initial call for service to the Patrol Officer and /or School Resource Officer, to preparing for a successful prosecution in the courtroom. The student will learn investigative methods that they can use to search for the facts in each case and gain a comprehensive analysis of the offense. The student will also learn how to use those facts obtained in their investigation, to build well-written reports, build comprehensive case files, and learn how to prepare a search and seizure warrant as it pertains to their investigation.

Course Objectives:
- Identify definitions pertaining to sexual crimes committed against children.
- Identify and communicate the types of sexual conduct of offenders.
- Properly and effectively respond to a scene involving sexual crimes committed against a child.
- Prepare well written reports and build case files for potential court proceedings.
- Prepare Search and Seizure Warrants.

Who Should Attend:
- Law enforcement officers, Detectives, School Principals and School Administrators, Probation and Parole Sex Offender Officers and Supervisors, Juvenile Sex Offender Officers and Supervisors

Location: FPSI, 75 College Dr, Havana, FL 32333
Cost: There is no tuition associated with this class
Instructor: Treza Green
Course Dates: February 19-21, 2024
Course Time: 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Enrollment Information:
To register, Region 3 & 15 officers should contact their agency training coordinator(s)
For additional information please contact Mike Fraser at Michael.Fraser@tcc.fl.edu