Criteria: This scholarship was established to provide tuition assistance to students participating in the TCC Spark Entrepreneurial Initiative. TCC Spark is designed to encourage and educate TCC students and community members and to provide support for those members considering starting their own business or expanding an existing one.

- You must be currently enrolled as a TCC Student, either degree or non-degree seeking during the semester that you apply for funding.
- This scholarship must be used during the semester that it is awarded and can only be used for tuition for the class; any books or additional class materials are not included.
- This scholarship (if awarded) will only be granted once to an individual for the ENT0001 class.

Submit an Essay: Write and attach a typed, minimum 12 point font, single-spaced essay, using headings, not to exceed one page answering the following questions:

- Do you have a business idea you are interested in exploring, or are you already in business?
- Describe in detail either your idea, or the current business you would like to expand.
- What do you want to learn from attending this class?
- Why should you be selected for this scholarship?
- Each class's knowledge builds upon the previous one over the course of the semester. Will you commit to attending each class for the entire 15 week semester?

Note: The scholarship committee will consider content, organization, style, and grammar in the approval process.
